

Women Business Leaders MADE Roundtable Participation and Confidentiality Agreement

Each participant of the Women Leaders MADE Roundtable Program is required to sign the Participation/Confidentiality Agreement.

I agree to the following:

1. I, hereby agree to a commitment of my time, expertise and other requirements of the Mason Deerfield Chamber Women Business Leaders MADE Roundtable Program. I understand that anyone missing two consecutive meetings or three overall may be dropped from the Roundtable.
2. I, hereby agree that in order to maintain a level of trust and continuity, it is essential that all meetings and discussions within the group remain strictly confidential. I understand that none of the confidential information shared may be used to cause competitive injury or disadvantage to a participant, and that I will not be the judge of the confidentiality of the material presented.
3. I accept the responsibility to respect the confidences shared with me at the Roundtable, as well as any contact I may have with group members outside of the established meetings.
4. I understand that the Women Business Leaders MADE Roundtable is not a platform for selling my products or services.

This agreement with the Mason Deerfield Chamber is a commitment of my time, expertise and other requirements of the Women Business Leaders MADE Roundtable.
